Digital crisis intervention for the workplace

Who we are

The Ripple Story & Impact

Alice Hendy MBE lost her brother Josh to suicide at 21 years old. Josh had been researching over the internet techniques to take his own life.

To ensure more help and support is given to individuals searching for harmful content online, Alice set up Ripple.

25%

Scaling mental health interventions by 2050 could save 25% of lives lost from self-harm (McKinsey, 2025)

Suicide's invisible accomplice

1 in 5

search results across major search engines link directly to content that promotes or instructs on self-harm, suicide, or eating disorders. (Ofcom)

2 p.m.

on working days shows peak activation for suicide and self-harm-related searches among Ripple users globally.

Online

searches for suicide methods are better predictors of suicide deaths than self-reported measures of suicide risk. (Makellams C, Or F, Baek JH)

How Ripple helps

Protection in 3 easy steps

1

Intercepts the search with a calmly presented pop-up screen.

2

Guides the person through a filter of breathing exercises to help them pause and reflect.

3

Signposts to helplines and mental health resources, accompanied with messages of hope.
